CHALLENGE

Fire fighter safety is paramount. It's not only important we "fight fires" and try to save lives, we must do every thing we can to ensure the team will return home safely.

You are the safety officer, where do you go from here? It's your call!

DISCUSSION

- What are some of the concerns raised by this picture?
- How would you address and correct the concerns at the site?
- What department policies are being violated?
- How can we improve the safety culture of the department?

The greatest asset of the fire service is our people; protect them!
